

P H I L I P F . H E N S H A W

167 West 87th St #8.
New York NY 10024

tel: (212) 579-2914
e-mail: ph@synapse9.com

EDUCATION

Hamilton Central School, Hamilton NY, sports, theater 1964

St. Lawrence University, B.S. in physics minors in mathematics and fine arts, football four years 1968

University of Pennsylvania, Masters of Fine Arts in Architecture, minor concentration in landscape and climate design, 1974

Community

Activism.

Volunteer

work

Memberships

EARLVILLE OPERA HOUSE Earlville NY 13346 1971-1973

One of three Co-founders of EOH, a community arts center in a small central NY village combining urban artists and local community which continues to the present. Served as treasurer, architect.

DENVER PEOPLE'S FAIR Denver CO 1974-1978

Principle designer during two years of major expansion, guiding the fair's transition from an informal neighborhood fair to a major citywide street fair.

BLAKE ST. TREES Denver CO 1975

Organized local community to plant street trees when downtown Denver was treeless

SOLAR TECHNOLOGY ACTIVIST Denver CO 1975-1980

Wrote for RAIN magazine, traveled to study and lecture on solar home and personal climate design, extensive on-site and laboratory research in indoor climate behavior

SEVEN GENERATIONS NETWORK, Hamilton NY 1980-81

Active leader, Hazardous waste research, education and organizing to stop a long term hazardous waste land fill.

NEW YORK MOBE, NUCLEAR FREEZE, ARCHITECTS for SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY NY NY 1981-1985

Active leader, Community organizing, research & education on issues of nuclear war

CENTRAL PARK CONSERVANCY 2000-2001

Weekend gardening

PUBLIC RADIO, member Denver & NYC 1974-2001